 - (ii) carry out, directly or through its subsidiaries, non-profit economic activities compatible with the purposes of the Association and appropriate to achieve the aims and purposes at issue.

ART.6 – PATRONAGE

The association may request the patronage of State Bodies or Public Entities and benefit, as part of the realization of its scope, also of the intervention of other associations or Private Entities.

ART.7 – MEMBERS

- (a) In the light of the aims and purposes of the Association as set forth in paragraph (b) of the preceding Art. 5, the membership of the Association is limited to individuals and legal entities operating in the fashion industry in Italy and having their historical roots in Italy and/or having in the country their industrial and creative roots, with particular reference to the origin of the brand, the availability of an archive and the methods of carrying out their activities of creating, designing and prototyping of products.
- (b) The members of the association will be divided into ordinary members and honorary members as follows:
- (i) The ordinary members are Italian individuals or Italian or foreign legal entities admitted into the Association pursuant to Article 8 that, satisfying the criteria referred to in paragraph (a), are engaged in creation and/or production and/or marketing in the field of Italian fashion and style, also as licensees for complementary products;
 - (ii) honorary members are individuals whose status is exclusively granted by the assembly, with a simple majority of the votes, for special and outstanding merits, on the proposal of the Board of Directors. Honorary members do not have any voting rights and, therefore, are exempted from paying the membership fee.

ART. 8 – ADMISSION

(a) The status of ordinary member with its rights and obligations is acquired through the enrollment in the membership book, following the decision by a majority of 3/4 (three quarters) of the Board of Directors, after having heard the non-binding opinion of the Admission Committee, upon the presentation by subjects in possession of the requirements set out in Article. 7, of a written admission application, addressed to the Board of Directors. With a resolution passed by the same majority above specified, the Board may invite individuals or entities, in possession of the requirements, set forth to become members the Association.

(b) The application submitted by entities, other than individuals, must include the name, the address and the Chamber of Commerce registration number, as well as personal details, residence and address of the legal representative of the entity and, upon proof of powers, must be signed by him.

The application submitted by individuals must include personal details, as well as the profession and any academic or honorary titles of the aspiring member.

(c) In the application, the applicant must provide ample written evidence of the existence of the requirements specified in Article 7. In any case, the applicant must declare to accept the obligations under the Statute and Regulations of the Association.

(d) Until the Board of Directors has not acted, with regard to the admission application, the candidate to the ordinary membership may be admitted to all the events of the Association as “guest”.

ART. 9 – MEMBERS’ RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

(a) Both, ordinary and honorary members, have the right to participate to the Assembly and other activities of the Association according to the rules set forth in the present Statute and other eventual regulations issued by the Board of Directors.

(b) Each ordinary member has the right to express one vote during the Assembly of the Association.

(c) All members are required to:

- (i) comply with the provisions of this Statute and the before mentioned Regulations, as well as to observe the deliberations and decisions of the bodies of the Association;
- (ii) immediately inform the Board of Directors of any variations of elements or requirements for the admission to the association that may occur.
- (iii) refrain from any action in conflict with the guidelines issued by the Association, in accordance with the provisions of this Statute and the Regulations referred to above. In particular members must give prior notice to the Association of any collective events, Italian and foreign, not directly organized by the Association, to which they intend to participate to the extent that the same may be in conflict or are likely to have an impact on the timing of events organized by the Association; must request prior authorization for the use, according to the rules and conditions laid down in Art. 4, for their interest and benefit, of the logo and brand of the Association;
- (iv) pay the "one-off" fee fixed at the time of admission and no later than the 31st (thirty-first) of January of each year, the annual membership fee fixed by the Assembly, it being understood that, in their absence, the Association may take any action permitted by law and by the present Statute, including recourse to the collection procedure to obtain payment of the amounts due in addition to interest for late payment. In case of delayed payment, the member may be suspended, unless he corresponds what due by March 31st (thirty-first) of the same year.

(d) Without prejudice to the provisions of Art. 10, the member suspended for non-payment will still have to pay the membership fee for the current year and may be reinstated upon payment of the annual contributions not paid, upon favorable resolution of the Board of Directors.

ART.10 – SUSPENSION, LOSS OF MEMBERSHIP STATUS AND RECESS

(a) Membership status is lost in the event of death of the individual or extinction of the legal entities or not personified entities, if subjected to bankruptcy or other insolvency proceedings - except those agreed in receivership and continuity -, loss of statutory requirements, recess or exclusion.

- (b) The ordinary or honorary member that does not fulfill its obligations set forth in the Statute or by the provisions by the Board of Directors or that, with his behavior has caused serious damage to the image of the Association, may be suspended by resolution of the Board of Directors and excluded from the Association by resolution of the Members Assembly.
- (c) In the event of the suspension of a member, the Board of Directors must, without delay, send him the relative communication and, simultaneously, summon the Assembly that will deliberate on the exclusion. If required by particular circumstances - or in the event that the Board intends to confer in advance with the person concerned - and prior to reasons mentioned by the Board in the communication to the member in the above terms, the summoning of the Assembly by the Board of Directors may be delayed for a period not exceeding, in any circumstances, 20 (twenty) days.
- (d) The members may recede, with a written notice, sent at least 3 (three) months before the end of the social year, by insured letter with return receipt. The recess, if communicated by September 30th of each year will be effective as of January 1st of the following year; if communicated after that date, it will be effective as of January 1st of the second following year, being understood that the member is obliged to the payment of the fees for the current year and eventually for the next year, in case the communication of recess was sent after September 30th.
- (e) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) in case of death of an individual member, his heirs or company that, by maintaining ownership of the brand, have continued the operations, will maintain active membership status, by applying within 6 (six) months from the date of death. In this case they will not be required to pay the "one-off" admission fee.
- (f) The ordinary or honorary membership status is not transferable by inter vivos trust.

ART.11 – MEMBERSHIP FEE

Annually, the Assembly, upon approval of the budget proposed by the Board of Directors, determines the amount of the membership fee due by ordinary members, taking into account the forecasts for the next financial year

ART. 12 – SOCIAL BODIES

- (a) The social bodies of the Association are:
- (i) The Members' Assembly;
 - (ii) The Board of Directors
 - (iv) the Board of Auditors
- (b) The Executive Council, during its first meeting, will elect, from among its members, the President, who shall be remunerated with a fee established by the Assembly pursuant to Article. 16, paragraph (a) (iv) and possibly one or more Vice Presidents, and appoint, always from among its members, a Managing Director, determining his remuneration and powers.

ART. 13 – MEMBERS' ASSEMBLY

- (a) The Assembly is made up of the ordinary members who can participate but only if in compliance with the payment of dues. Honorary members may participate to the assembly but without the right to vote.
- (b) Also the Board of Auditors has the right to participate at the Assembly
- (c) Every ordinary member has the right to one single vote.

ART. 14 – CONVENING OF THE ASSEMBLY

- (a) The assembly is convened by the President at least once a year within the 30th (thirty) of June, with an insured letter sent to the address of the ordinary and honorary members resulting from the documents of the Association, or through written communication sent via certified electronic mail, or via telefax to be sent to the e-mail address and/or to the telefax number indicated by the members of the Association.
- (b) The ordinary or extraordinary Assembly may also be convened at any time, as well as on the initiative of the President, upon the written request of at least one third of the ordinary members or a majority of members of the Board of Directors in accordance with any terms set out in paragraph (b). In such cases, the requests made by the members of the association or the members of the Board of Directors should indicate the issues to be put on the agenda.
- (c) The notice convening the Assembly shall indicate the matters on the agenda, the date, time and place fixed for the meeting at first and possibly second call and how to participate to the same via video conference.
- (d) The date of the first call has to be set at least twenty (20) days after the date of the mailing of the letters of convocation. The date of second call cannot be set for the same day set for the first call.
- (e) The ordinary members who wish to participate to the assembly via video conference need to communicate it to the Board of Directors at least 2 (two) days before the date set for the first call of the assembly.

ART. 15 – VALIDITY OF THE RESOLUTIONS AND MAJORITIES

- (a) The ordinary or extraordinary assembly is presided by the President or, in case of his absence or impediment, by one of the Vice Presidents (if appointed) or yet by another person designated by the Assembly itself, and is validly constituted on first call, if at least half plus one of the ordinary members are present. On second call, the ordinary Assembly is validly constituted regardless of the number of ordinary members present, while the extraordinary Assembly is validly constituted with the presence of at least 2/5 (two fifths) of the ordinary members attending.

- (b) The Assembly is ordinary or extraordinary as better specified in the following Article 16.
- (c) The resolutions of the ordinary Assembly are approved both in the first or second call, by the affirmative vote of a simple majority of the ordinary members present, except for the resolutions for which it is otherwise provided in this Statute, while (except as provided in paragraph (d)) for the resolutions of the extraordinary Assembly it is necessary the favorable vote of 2/3 (two thirds) of the ordinary members present in both first and second call. In any case, the computation is carried out without taking into account any abstentions.
- (d) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) to approve the dissolution of the Association, the favorable vote of at least 3/4 (three quarters) of ordinary members in both first and second call is necessary.
- (e) Every ordinary member may be represented by another ordinary member. Each member may not receive more than one proxy. In the case of companies, the legal representatives may be replaced in the manner prescribed by their internal regulations, with prior notice to the President, yet always saving the right to give and receive a proxy in accordance with the preceding paragraph.
- (f) The minutes of the Assembly is drawn up and signed by the Secretary appointed by Assembly and is countersigned by the President.
- (g) The Assembly shall vote by roll call with an open vote unless, for specific resolutions, a simple majority of the ordinary members present at the Assembly may request that the vote takes place with a secret ballot.
- (h) The resolutions approved by the Assembly, taken in compliance with the present Statute, are binding for all members, even if not present, dissenting or abstaining.

ART. 16 – DUTIES OF THE ASSEMBLY

- (a) Ordinary Assembly:
 - (i) it approves the budget of the Association by June 30th of each year;
 - (ii) it takes decisions on the guidelines of the Association's activities;
 - (iii) it defines the amount of the annual association fee and the eventual "one-off" fees;
 - (iv) it appoints the Board of Directors, after defining the number of its members, in the manner indicated in Art. 17 and determines the amount of expenses to be reimbursed to the Directors.
 - (v) it determines the remuneration and expense reimbursement of the President;
 - (vi) it revokes for serious reasons the Board and/or the single Directors;
 - (vii) it appoints the Auditors and their President and resolves on whether to revoke them;
 - (viii) it resolves on any matter submitted for its approval by the Board of Directors;
 - (ix) it resolves on the exclusion of members on the proposal of the Board of Directors;

- (b) Extraordinary Assembly:
- (i) it approves statutory amendments;
 - (ii) it approves the extension of the duration term of the Association;
 - (iii) it approves the dissolution of the association and, in such a case, it decides the destination of the assets in line with the purposes of the Association and in accordance with the legal provisions in force at the time of dissolution;
 - (iv) it resolves on acts of disposal of any real estate assets of the Association;
 - (v) it defines at the end date of the Association, the liquidation procedures and appoints the liquidators;

ART. 17 – ELECTION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- (a) The Association is managed by a Board of Directors consisting of an odd number of members between 9 (nine) and fifteen (15) as may be approved by before his election. The Board of Directors remains in office for two (2) years including that in which the Board of Directors has been appointed and its members may be reappointed without any limitation.
- (b) The Assembly will appoint the Board of Directors on the basis of lists of candidates submitted pursuant to the following paragraphs of this Article. 17.
- (c) Each list has to be undersigned by at least 20 ordinary members;
- (d) The lists of candidates, undersigned by the submitting members, accompanied by the documentation required by this Statute shall be deposited at the Company's registered office at least ten (10) days before the date set, on first call, for the Assembly. The deposit of the list of candidates, carried out as indicated in this paragraph (d) will also be valid for the second call of the Assembly, if foreseen.
- (e) Declaration of ineligibility :
- (i) the candidates present in the lists need to be members of the Association, with the exception of 1 (one) candidate which can be a non-member, and
 - (ii) each candidate can be present in only one list.
- (f) Each list must clearly state the candidate members (individuals or legal entities with an indication of the individual who will represent it) up to a maximum of 15 (fifteen). Candidates will also need to be ordered in a sequential number. Together with each list it will be also necessary to deposit at the registered office of the Association, by the deadline foreseen for the submission of the lists, the curriculum vitae of each individual candidate, specifying among other things the company he represents. The list of candidates for which have not been observed the provisions of the preceding paragraphs shall be deemed as not submitted. Each list must contain the name of the person who, if elected, will assume the Presidency of the Association and the one intended to take up the post of Managing Director.

- (g) Each ordinary member can vote only one list.
- (h) All members of the Board of Directors will be taken from the list that has obtained the largest number of votes.
- (i) In the event no list is submitted, the assembly will appoint the Board of Directors by acclamation, that is by the majority of the members present.
- (j) If during the three years of office one or more directors ceases to be operative, for any reason what so ever, and provided that such termination does not lessen the majority of the directors elected by the Assembly, the Board of Directors shall replace the ceased Directors by co-optation, it being understood that if the director ceased was the representative of a legal entity member it will be co-opted another person on behalf of such member. The directors so co-opted shall hold office until the meeting of the next Assembly, which will proceed to their confirmation or replacement under the terms and ordinary majorities, in derogation to the voting list system indicated in this Article 17.
- (k) In the event of termination or falling from office, for any reason, of the majority of the members of the Board of Directors, the entire Board shall be deemed revoked and a new Board of Directors will need to be elected in accordance with the provisions of this Article 17.
- (l) In the event the members elected to the Board are legal entities, they must designate, at the time of appointment, the individual selected among their legal representatives, directors, or authorized representatives who will participate in the Board of Directors. The indication must come from the authorized legal representative. The loss of representative status of the legal entity member will result in automatic termination as a member of the Council and the legal entity member has the faculty, within 30 (thirty) days, to appoint another member.

ART. 18 – BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETINGS

- (a) The Board of Directors will meet in the registered office or elsewhere, at least once in each quarter and, in any case, whenever the President considers it appropriate or when a request is made to the President by at least one third of the directors. The meetings of the Board of Directors may also take place by video conference or teleconference provided that the President or whoever replaces him will be able to identify the participants and the same can receive or see the documents discussed during the meeting.
- (b) The President can appoint a Secretary even out of the Board.
- (c) The convening is made by the President or, in his absence or impediment, by the Vice President (if appointed), by registered letter, or by written communication sent by certified mail, or even by fax, indicating the agenda and the date, time and place of the meeting, to be sent at least ten (10) days before the date of the meeting. In case of urgency, the summon may be made by written communication via certified mail, or even by fax or telegram, to be sent at least three (3) days before the meeting.

In the event of dissolution of the Association, the Assembly will decide the destination of the company's assets, in line with the objectives of the Association and in compliance with regulations in force at the time of dissolution and in any case in favor of Organizations or Associations having similar or related purposes.

ART. 27 – TRANSITIONAL PROVISION

Notwithstanding any other provision present in this Statute:

- (a) The Board of Directors appointed during the assembly held on April 17th 2013 for the period 2013 – 2016 will remain in power until the date on which an assembly will be held to approve the financial statement of the Association for the year 2013, except for the increase in the number of directors from 18 (including the President) to 19. The 19th director will be appointed by the assembly following the approval of this Statute or thereafter by the Board of Directors by cooptation. Far as necessary, it should be noted that, at the natural expiration date of the Board of Directors, a new body will be appointed, in accordance with the provisions contained herein.
- (b) The substitutes directors appointed by the assembly held on April 17th 2013 for the period 2013 to 2016, will fall from office, since they are no longer required by this Statute. For any replacement of the members of the Board of Directors we will proceed by co-option pursuant to Art. 17, par. (j) of this Statute.
- (c) The Board of Auditors appointed during the assembly held on April 17th 2013 will remain in power up to its natural expiration date.
- (d) The Arbitrators appointed during the assembly held on April 17th 2013, will fall from office since the Board of arbitrators is no longer foreseen by the present Statute.
